Shaping Skills for an Inclusive Tomorrow

The Hunar Foundation (THF) is honored to join hands with the Pakistan Poverty Alleviation Fund (PPAF) in our shared commitment to transforming lives and creating pathways of hope for the underserved, particularly religious minorities in Pakistan. This partnership is a powerful step toward dismantling systemic inequalities through innovative programs and purposeful initiatives that empower marginalized communities.

While education and employment remain at the heart of this collaboration, we also recognize the importance of fostering resilience, promoting social cohesion and encouraging sustainable development, values deeply aligned with PPAF's vision of creating an inclusive, prosperous society free from poverty. By addressing economic disparities and ensuring access to resources, skills and mentorship, we aim to create a ripple effect that transforms entire communities. This partnership is not just about uplifting individuals, it's about building a robust foundation for a more equitable society where opportunities are not a privilege but a right for all.

Together, we envision a future where our youth are equipped to rise above barriers. By bridging the critical gap between education and employment, we are striving to build a Pakistan where every individual, regardless of caste, color and creed has the chance to dream, achieve and thrive.

This collaboration is a testament to our shared belief in a skilled, inclusive and empowered Pakistan.

We were delighted to host a delegation from Fauji Fertilizer Company (FFC) at The Hunar Foundation to discuss exciting collaborative initiatives, including the potential establishment of a new training institute in Upper Sindh. This proposed center is designed to offer hands-on learning through a sustainable model that aligns with the aspirations of the region's youth. By imparting essential technical and vocational skills and building their confidence, this initiative aims to empower young individuals to pursue rewarding careers in Pakistan and beyond. This partnership envisions a future where skills become the catalyst for transformative opportunities and lasting impact.
