Where Skills Become an Enterprise: Hunar Beauty Studio Opens in Orangi Town Campus!

A wave of transformation is emerging in Orangi Town, marking the beginning of a new journey for The Hunar Foundation (THF). The soft launch of Hunar Beauty Studio, inaugurated by Pakistan's iconic stylist Nabila and powered by Friends of Hunar, signals a fresh direction for THF. It is a space where young women, trained through THF's Beautician Program, step confidently into their professions — not as job seekers, but as service providers, creators, and entrepreneurs.

By offering professional beauty and styling services at accessible prices, Hunar Beauty Studio is designed to bridge two worlds: the aspirations of women seeking livelihoods, and the needs of communities looking for quality, affordable care.

For THF, this is a bold step into new terrain — translating vocational training into a platform where skills meet enterprise. It's a model that doesn't just prepare students for jobs; it creates the jobs of tomorrow, within their own neighborhoods.
